

Come share the day with us!
Enjoy great entertainment, camaraderie, ono-licious food,
arts & crafts booths, raffle & door prize give-aways.

Sunday, April 3rd, 2011
10:00 am to 5:30 pm

Chabot College
Performing Arts Center
25555 Hesperian Blvd,
Hayward, CA

Celebrating the 17th

'UKULELE FESTIVAL

OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA • SINCE 1994

Food booths and arts & crafts booths open at 9:00 am.
Program begins at 10:45 am. Doors open at 10:15 am.
Tickets: $8 in advance (purchase by 3/15/11)
$10 at the door
4 years old & under - free

The 'Ukulele Festival of Northern California was founded by Hollis Baker & John Ogao.
The 'Ukulele Festival of Northern California is a not-for-profit event.

Performers Info

Each performance slot must feature the 'ukulele and is limited to 10 minutes.
Application forms are due January 15, 2011.
Confirmed performers will be notified by February 1, 2011.
For information contact Gary Demar: gary@ukulelefestivalnorcal.org * (209) 207-9411

$500 'Ukulele Festival / PICA Scholarship

Application deadline: February 15, 2011
For information & application contact: sarah@ukulelefestivalnorcal.org * (510) 783-1591

Arts & Crafts & Food Vendors

Contact Stacey Wiebusch: stacey@ukulelefestivalnorcal.org * (510) 490-3930

Want to be a volunteer?

Contact Robert Guarino: robertg@ukulelefestivalnorcal.org * (510) 593-8111

For more information

Contact Sarah Kamai-Paler: sarah@ukulelefestivalnorcal.org * (510) 783-1591

Website: <http://www.ukulelefestivalnorcal.org>